

AUTISM SA

Advertising in Autism SA Electronic Communications

Our Electronic Communications:

Autism SA initiated an 'Information Email Service' in 2006 which now has a fortnightly dissemination of 3000 people and organisations in the Autism Spectrum Community in South Australia.

In addition, Autism SA's newsletter 'The Autiser' is produced electronically 3 times per year in conjunction with the printed version. Please note we do not have any paid advertisements in the hard copy version of 'The Autiser'.

The Autism SA website www.autismsa.org.au is the first port of call for many people seeking information on Autism Spectrum Disorders, services that are available, training and development opportunities and family support.

Advertising Package:

We have found that advertising incorporating all of the above media to be the most effective and have developed the following packages for your consideration:
